Individuals acting as representatives of a political party, candidate or committee (as defined by Iowa Code Chapter 68A) who solicit and collect absentee ballot request forms from voter and must use the official absentee ballot request form with receipt found here, and return the receipt to the voter with the information requested completely filled out.

Turnaround Time: The collected request forms must be returned to the county auditor’s office within 72 hours of receiving the form or no later than 5pm on the deadline to request an absentee ballot, whichever is earlier. An application received by a political party after the deadline, but before the date of the election, must return the application to the respective county auditor within twenty-four hours.

For more information, please see the Secretary of State’s website here.

The voter may ask for assistance and if unable to sign, may have someone sign the form on the voter’s behalf as long as it is done in the voter’s presence and with the voter’s permission.

Iowa law does not address assistance from others in requesting a ballot.
